translates to "mother in the field," embodying the image of a mother immersed in agricultural work. It is more than a literal depiction; it symbolizes the nurturing aspect of maternal figures intertwined with the nurturing role of the land itself. Historically, in Indian villages, women, especially mothers, have been pivotal to farming activities, often balancing household chores with labor-intensive work in fields.

Symbolism in Indian Society
Nurturer and Provider: Mothers symbolize care, sustenance, and resilience—traits mirrored by the land that provides crops and nourishment.
Tradition and Continuity: The image of a mother working in the fields is emblematic of generational continuity, where agricultural practices and familial bonds are passed down.

Crop Management: Managing small-scale kitchen gardens and tending to household livestock.
Post-Harvest Activities: Processing grains, storing seeds, and preparing produce for sale or household consumption.
Supporting Infrastructure: Collecting water, tending to animals, and performing other household tasks that support farming.

This multifaceted involvement underscores women's integral role in sustaining rural economies and households.

Despite these challenges, many women continue to work tirelessly in the fields, embodying the spirit captured by the phrase maa ko khet mein.

Socio-Economic Impact of Women in Agriculture
